

DISCOVER TASMANIA

Few destinations can pull off what Tasmania does in combining the world's freshest and finest produce with the most adventurous wilderness. With 19 national parks covering 40% of Australia's island state, native animals and ancient forests combine to create the cleanest and greenest environment possible. These pristine forests, productive agricultural lands and pristine seas provide a natural supermarket of deliciously fresh produce. Dine on succulent seafood like oysters, trout, lobster, abalone, scallops and salmon. Enjoy Tasmania's unique leatherwood honey; pepperberries; Cape Grim beef and premium wines from over 200 vineyards.

RECOMMENDED ITINERARY

Day 1 Hobart

Arrive Hobart, visit Sorell Fruit Farm or Coal River Farm to pick fruit (when in season) and explore the waterfront, galleries and gardens. Stroll historic Battery Point - on Saturdays, don't miss Salamanca Market. Admire superb views over the harbour from Mt Wellington, tour Cascade Brewery or discover the Museum of Old and New Art (MONA) Australia's largest private art museum. Savour fresh seafood at dockside restaurants like Fish Frenzy or Mures.

Overnight: Hobart

Day 2 Hobart and Surrounds

Option a) Huon Valley: To Tahune AirWalk 180 km - 3 hours (return)

Option b) Derwent: To Mount Field 134 km - 2 hours 30 mins (return)

Option c) Tasman Peninsula: To Port Arthur 186 km - 3 hours (return)

Today head south to Huon Valley, visit Tahune Forest Reserve for AirWalk; take a jetboat ride at Huonville; visit fruit orchards; vineyards; Willie Smith's organic Apple Cider & Museum; Grandveve Cheese to taste delicious sheep cheese or even stop by road side stalls to buy fresh Tasmanian apples and other fruits by just paying through the 'honesty box'.

Or, head north to observe Tasmanian devils and other native animals at Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary. Visit Russell Falls in Mount Field National Park, its three elegant tiers, framed by lush vegetation, have been a magnet for many visitors especially in autumn for the turning of the fagus. Join a farm tour or overnight at Curringa Farm near Hamilton.

Alternatively, head to Tasman Peninsula to visit Tasmanian Devil Unzoo, Port Arthur Lavender Farm, UNESCO World Heritage listed - Port Arthur Historic Site and take a three-hour Tasman Island Cruise.

Overnight: Hobart

Day 3 Hobart - Oatlands - Ross - Cradle Mountain

(378 km - 5 hours)

Drive north along the Heritage Highway towards Launceston, pausing at Bonorong Wildlife Sanctuary, Callington Mill in Oatlands, see carvings on the convict-built Ross Bridge and sample the delights at Ross Bakery, with its wood-fired oven. Turn off after Perth to head west to Cradle Mountain. Visit 41° South Tasmania salmon & ginseng farm, Melita Honey Farm and stop at Sheffield, a mural town along the way. In the evening, join the animal

'spotlight tour' including Devils@Cradle to watch nocturnal animals feed.

Overnight: Cradle Mountain

Day 4 Cradle Mountain - Launceston

(181 km - 2 hours 30 mins)

Discover Cradle Mountain National Park, stroll around Dove Lake and explore the surroundings or indulge in nature activities such as walks, horse-riding, fly-fishing or a wilderness flight. In the late morning, depart for Launceston via B18 towards Burnie, visiting House of Anvers Chocolate Factory and Ashgrove Cheese Farm.

Overnight: Launceston

Day 5 Launceston - Tamar Valley

(100 km - 2 hours return)

Ride the world's longest single-span chairlift across Cataract Gorge and head north to Tamar Valley. Visit Bridestowe Lavender Estate; Seahorse World; Platypus House and spend time at Tasmania's acclaimed cool-climate wineries. In the afternoon, tour south by visiting the Tasmanian Honey Company; Tasmanian Gourmet Sauce and World Heritage listed Brickendon and Woolmers Estates, renowned for its Rose Garden before flying out at night or extending your stay.
